A new approach to political discourse in Ethiopia Introducing the birth of “Le Ethiopiawinet “, the voice of ENPCP

Ethiopian National Priorities Consultative Process (ENPCP) is pleased to announce the commencement (birth) of a new publication LE ETHIOPIAWINET , the voice of ENPCP. The inaugural issue of Le Ethiopianwinet will be available to the public shortly.

With the birth of Le Ethiopiawinet,, which is the only of its kind at this time, ENPCP commits itself to deliver comprehensive news, opinion, in-depth analysis etc about all aspects of civil society in Ethiopia.

Through its web site and Le Ethiopiawinet , ENPCP will disseminate information to help foster civic society with a strong value of Ethiopiawinet in all forms of our activities. By doing so, ENPCP aspires to uniquely empower Ethiopians to assert their will for Ethiopiawinet based on the following core values:

- Uphold national sovereignty and territorial integrity
- The inviolability of the unity of the Ethiopian people
- Respect for internationally recognized individual, civil and political right
- Representative and accountable governance
- Cultural pluralism and national unity
- Economic freedom and equity

- Collaboration and complementing other organizations for effective civic movement.

We welcome contributions from opinion makers, scholars, educators, activists, concerned citizens and anyone who would like to contribute to the development and strengthening of Civic Society in Ethiopia.

Please consider the following criteria when developing article submissions:

- ENPCP does not pay or give honoraria for any article published on Le Ethiopiawinet or on our website
- Submissions must include the author's full contact information.
- Articles should be in Microsoft Word format.
- Images should be attached separately in JPEG format.
